3-4-1 Trio Heads To Nashville, TN

Wausau, Wisconsin June 25th, 2010 – Central Wisconsin-based vocal group, 3-4-1 will be performing live at an invitation-only, three day festival held June 30th - July 2nd at Lipscomb University, in the heart of "music city", Nashville, TN. The trio will be accompanying Keith Lancaster, founder of the renowned men's group, Acappella.

3-4-1 has been performing since 2004 at various festivals, concert halls, private events and churches. They celebrated their 75th concert this spring at Wausau's National Day of Prayer breakfast meeting. In 2008, 3-4-1 participated in gospel's world largest annual event, The National Quartet Convention in Louisville, KY. The ladies also minister locally at nursing homes, hospitals, and hospice facilities.

Janice Grimes and Jennifer Johnson, Wausau natives and Kay Pickar originally from Manitowoc, reside in the Wausau greater area and are active at their home church, Highland Community. Kay comments, "341 is a dream come true.... I'm amazed at God's provision and equipping." While 3-4-1 is a part-time ministry for each, it has progressed beyond their expectations.

2010 Public Event Schedule:

- August 5th: 4:00 - Wisconsin Valley Fair, Wausau
- August 29th: 9:00 - First English Lutheran Church, Wausau
- October 15th: 7:00 - One Way Cafe. River Cities Christian Church, Wisconsin Rapids
